Welcome to Paid Surveys, Etc. - Get Paid For Your Opinion

These million-dollar-a-year fat cats, know squat about their customers! So they pay 'normal' people like me to tell them the word on the street.

If you would like to know how you too can take advantage of this and possibly make $3500+* per month, then have I got something for you!

Each day I help these companies make more informed decisions about what their customers really want. And I don't have any special skills or training for this either.

But what I do know, and what you already know, is quite simply what we like about the various products that we use, buy or don't buy. Large companies are willing to pay a premium for that information.

If they don't know what their average customers needs and wants are, then they won't have a business come next season.

So how do they remedy this? Quite simply they pay millions of dollars each month, to average people just like you and me to answer questions and jot down our opinions. Here are some Samples of these Surveys:

I know people who have the surveys mailed to them but I personally do this online. Why wait for mail when you can start making money now? It takes seconds to logon via the internet and access this massive database of surveys.

I quit my old job at the postal office and told my boss to "Shove It". It was the best feeling I've ever had.

In the morning I wake up my kids, Alex and Jenny. Then as they get ready for school, I head downstairs, and turn on my laptop so I can log into my account and complete a quick survey before they come down for breakfast.

That usually doesn't take much time and then I have already made $25 - $35 before breakfast...
